Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Policy

Document Code	ZDL-HR-007
Version	V.02
Effective Date	01 January 2025
Document Owner	Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) and HR

INTRODUCTION

Zyro Dynamics is committed to securing and maintaining a work environment free from harassment, exploitation, and intimidation for all employees. While the Company will take every required step to maintain a harmonious and respectful workplace, employees are also personally responsible for contributing to an environment in which dignity is respected and upheld.

This Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Policy has been developed in accordance with the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013, and the rules framed thereunder. It reflects the Company's firm commitment to preventing sexual harassment and providing a fair, confidential, and effective mechanism for redressal.

OBJECTIVE

The objective of this policy is to provide protection against sexual harassment at the workplace, to prevent the occurrence of such harassment, and to provide an accessible and fair mechanism for the redressal of complaints relating to sexual harassment at Zyro Dynamics.

SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY

This policy applies to all employees of Zyro Dynamics, including full-time, fixed-term, probationary, and contractual employees, as well as interns, trainees, and third-party personnel working at Zyro Dynamics premises. It covers conduct at all company workplaces, which includes:

- All Zyro Dynamics offices and premises in India and abroad.
- Any location where work-related activities are being performed, including client sites and co-working spaces.
- Social, business, or professional functions organised by or on behalf of Zyro Dynamics.
- Any location visited by an employee during the course of their work, including while travelling on company business.
- Digital channels including email, chat applications, social media, and phone communications that are connected to the workplace relationship.

DEFINITION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Sexual harassment includes any one or more of the following unwelcome acts or behaviour, whether directly or by implication:

- Physical contact or advances of a sexual nature.
- Demands or requests for sexual favours, whether explicit or implied, in exchange for any work-related benefit.
- Making sexually coloured remarks, gestures, or jokes.
- Showing pornography or sharing sexually explicit content through any medium.
- Any other unwelcome physical, verbal, or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature.

The following circumstances, even if not directly sexual in nature, may also amount to sexual harassment when connected to the workplace relationship:

- An implied or explicit promise of preferential treatment in employment.
- An implied or explicit threat of detrimental treatment or adverse impact on employment status.
- Conduct that creates an intimidating, offensive, or hostile work environment.
- Humiliating treatment that is likely to affect the physical or mental health or safety of the person.

INTERNAL COMPLAINTS COMMITTEE (ICC)

Zyro Dynamics has constituted an Internal Complaints Committee as required under the POSH Act. The ICC is responsible for receiving, inquiring into, and recommending action on all complaints of sexual harassment.

Role	Name	Department
Presiding Officer	Marta	Chief People Officer
Internal Member	Pooja Ramachandran	Legal and Compliance
Internal Member	Aryan Kapoor	Engineering Manager, L6
External Member	Adv. Preethi Srinivas	External — Women's Rights Organisation

Note: The ICC contact email is icc@zyrodynamics.com. Complaints may also be submitted in a sealed envelope addressed to the Presiding Officer at the HR office at Zyro Dynamics HQ.

FILING A COMPLAINT

Any aggrieved person who has experienced sexual harassment may file a complaint with the ICC within 3 months of the incident or the last incident in a series of incidents. In exceptional circumstances, the ICC may extend this period by a further 3 months upon written application with reasons.

Step	Action	Timeline
1	Aggrieved person submits written complaint to the ICC by email or sealed letter	Within 3 months of incident
2	ICC acknowledges receipt and forwards a copy to the respondent	Within 7 working days
3	Respondent is given opportunity to submit a written response	10 working days to respond
4	ICC conducts inquiry — hearings of both parties, witnesses, and evidence review	Completed within 60 days
5	ICC submits inquiry report with recommendations to management	Within 10 days of inquiry completion
6	Management implements recommended action	Within 60 days of receiving report

CONFIDENTIALITY

The identities of the complainant, the respondent, and any witnesses, as well as all proceedings, findings, and recommendations of the ICC, are strictly confidential. No information shall be communicated to any person other than those directly involved in the inquiry process or those required to implement the recommendations. Any breach of confidentiality by any party is itself a disciplinary offence.

PROTECTION FROM RETALIATION

Zyro Dynamics expressly prohibits any form of retaliation against an employee who files a complaint, participates in an inquiry, or reports a suspected violation under this policy in good faith. Any retaliatory act, including adverse performance ratings, demotion, transfer, isolation, threats, or termination, will be treated as a separate and serious disciplinary matter independent of the original complaint.

CONSEQUENCES

On the basis of the ICC's findings and recommendations, the Company may impose the following actions on the respondent, depending on the gravity of the proven misconduct:

- Written warning with mandatory completion of a sensitisation and inclusion training programme.
- Suspension without pay for a defined period.
- Transfer to a different team, project, or location.
- Withholding of promotion, increment, or other benefits for a specified period.
- Termination of employment with immediate effect.
- Referral to law enforcement where the conduct is found to constitute a criminal offence under applicable Indian law.
